Mr. F. M. Eaton

Dear Fred:

On December 11th you very kindly sent me a list of names of men who might be useful as consultants to this Agency. In the confusion which resulted from attempting to do a full-time job and carry out the arrangements incidental to the marriage ceremony, I did not get around to thanking you for sending this list which I now do with apology for the delay. The list has already proved useful and we are now using in one capacity or another several of the men you recommended.

The Jacksons are now established at and Mary and I would love to have you for lunch or for dinner any time you are in Washington. Please be sure to let me know when you are coming down as we really do want to see you very much.

With best personal regards,

Very sincerely,

WILLIAM H. JACKSON

Dear Bill:

Following our conversation, I have given some thought to a list of names which might be useful to you. I have omitted from the list men who have been active in the field, such as [Redacted]

[Redacted] etc.,
as I am sure you have thought of them.

As I do not know enough about the composition of your Committee to be selective, I am listing people who are willing to do their homework and whose judgment in certain fields I respect, although I might not agree with them. I would be glad to furnish more detailed information on any of them should they prove of interest.

[Redacted] I have only a passing personal acquaintance with, but have seen enough of their work to include them.

They are:-
